

MARSHALL COUNTY
BLUEBERRY FESTIVAL PARADE
Labor Day – September 4, 2017

Presented by: Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center

Theme: "Back Home Again in Marshall County"

9:30 A.M. START (SHARP)!

YOUR PARADE LINE-UP NUMBER IS # _____ 86

Welcome to the 51st Annual Marshall County Blueberry Festival Parade sponsored by SAINT JOSEPH HEALTH SYSTEM. The Parade Committee has made every attempt to make this parade enjoyable and fun. We hope you enjoy the parade and your stay in Plymouth.

PLEASE FOLLOW the directions on the enclosed map for your entrance into the parade line-up area. This is the only route your unit is allowed to use to enter this area. There will be NO PARKING in the line-up area for parade participants. Parking is available at the High School; however, there is a fee to park there. SEE MAP for free parade parking area.

The Parade Committee will be present in the Plymouth High School parking lot at 6:30 a.m. The parade steps off promptly at 9:30 a.m. We ask that all units be in their line-up places no later than 8:00 a.m. Traffic gets really heavy that morning, so please, plan accordingly. Michigan Street is shut down to traffic at 8:00 am.

The parade will step off, rain or shine, so dress for the weather.

JUDGING: Judging for ALL the units except Baton, Cheer, and Tumbling will be held prior to the parade. Please be ready for judging by 8:00 a.m. if you are to be judged.

BATON AND CHEERLEADING/TUMBLING UNITS will be judged during the parade. The parade ends at Gibson and Liberty Streets, so PLEASE perform all the way through the parade so everyone can enjoy your music and performance. Please, remember all performing must be done while moving forward.
