If you're not going to wear a costume then wear something warm and Whitko.

Thursday	7:00 AM

"A Statement from the ISSMA Office"

Directors are responsible for the behavior of their students at any and all ISSMA performance sites. Instruction regarding proper conduct and expectations at such events should be a part of the overall educational and preparation process. It is crucial that host schools, their administrators and teachers can confidently host our events in their facilities without fear of damage or inappropriate behavior. We have had a few instances of schools electing not to host events again because of disrespect for the facilities and host officials by some students.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.
